

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew

The Brotherhood welcomes all Christian men - young and not so young - regardless of denomination.

So, what is the Brotherhood of St. Andrew? Our chapter continues to focus on our mission of spreading Christ's Kingdom among men and youth.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew here in our parish is a unique blend of a men's club, Bible study and service organization. That is, kind of one stop shopping in the busy lives of Christian men. At each meeting we get together over breakfast and discuss whatever comes to mind. Then we have a short business meeting where we cover such things as plans for upcoming activities. The remainder of the meeting is a lesson by one of the Brothers followed by discussions of how this relates to us as Christian men.

The only thing missing in our Brotherhood chapter is you. Each of us has been given talents and ideas to use in the service of Christ and His church. The lives of all men can be improved and enhanced by more of us men coming together and applying these talents and ideas to His service and glory.

Please ponder and pray about this and consider coming to one of our future meetings and giving the Brotherhood a try.

Our meetings are at 9:00 on the 2nd and 4th Saturday's of each month. We currently meet at Steve's Family Restaurant, 15800 Middlebelt (between 5 and 6 Mile) in Livonia.
